High School Memories
Are vague and dim.
But when I flip through my yearbook
Some of it all comes back to me.

The fear and insecurity
Of our Freshman year.
Reassurances and inhibitions
Of our Sophomore.

More loosely, though, I recall
My third year-Junior:
How I started to fit in,
I got respect and admiration.

Then there was Senior year.
The time I was somebody.
When everyone knew who I was
And thought that I was cool.

The wild carousing and
Being in charge.
My name in lights
Oh, what a change!

And then graduation
And it was all over.
How I would love to return
to those wondrous days of High School.

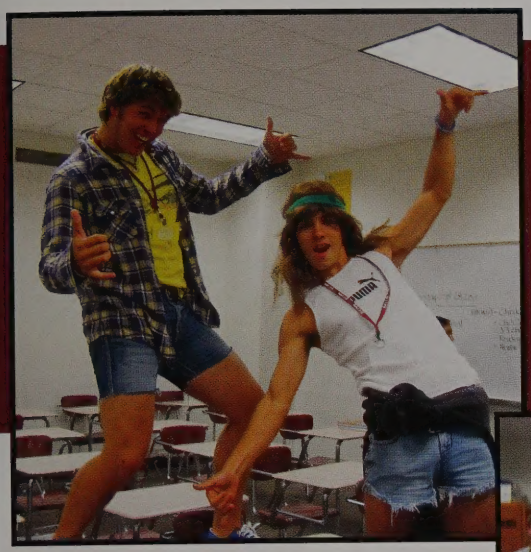
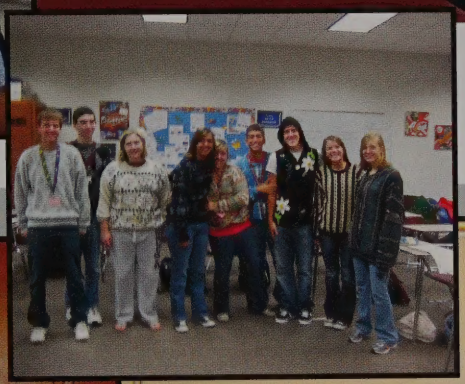
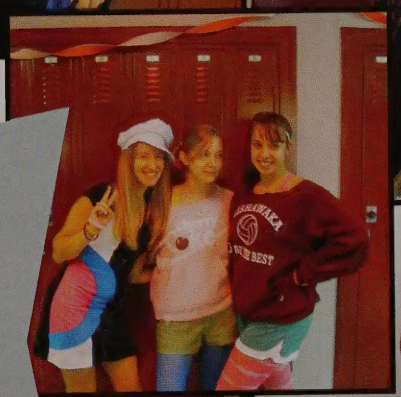
From top to bottom: 1. Kelly Loughlin, Anthony Mataranglo, Michael Louderback, Jordan Hixenbaugh, Andrea Barbour, Courtney Balentine, and Brandon Smith show that nerds need company too. 2. Sam Fairchild and Joe Herman show their inner nerd on nerd day. 3. Brody Vance, Carley Piatkowski, Sam Abu-Shehab, Ronnie Rice, Lanetta Ruffolo, and Garret Lacluyse show that heros come in all shapes and sizes. 4. Mr. Sergeant, Tess Skwiat, Carissa Escher, and Kelly Loughlin show their love of being a hero in their own way!

How about You?

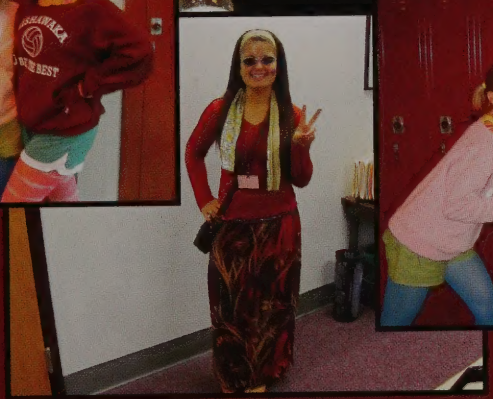




Ugly Sweater Day



Age of What?



1. Brice Thomas and Matt Horsman strike a totally rad pose with their 80's outfits. 2. Lanetta Ruffolo and Lauren Lampert chose to represent different decades day with a little Renaissance and flapper flare. 3. Kelly Loughlin, Courtney Balentine, Anthony Mataranglo, Rachel Szweda, Kati Pilarski, and Brandon McCord show that the styles of the different decades can come together with appeal. 4. Tess Skwiat, Carissa Escher, and Cheyenne Tjaden show that friendship can span across the ages. 5. Kelsey Alexander rocks the peace sign of the age of aquarius. 6. Carissa Escher, Karly Ward, and Cheyenne Tjaden rock and roll for spirit day.

Set in the early days of the depression ,in a small southern Indiana town named Zion, Buddy Layman is a mentally-challenged boy whose sweet nature touches most people he meets. One day a stranger named C.C. Showers passes through Zion looking for work and food. C.C. takes an immediate liking to Buddy and vice versa. C.C. is able to relate to Buddy in ways that most people aren't. The two become close friends and C.C. soon finds himself as Buddy's mentor and teacher. Jennie Mae is attracted to C.C., and though he likes her, Jennie Mae isn't the only single girl near Zion that finds C.C. a great man. The town's dry goods owner has her eye set on bringing old fashioned revival to the community. The local diner owner would love to see the church rebuilt – and all the Sunday customers it would bring to her establishment. CC's relationship with the people of the town changes drastically when they learned that he was a former preacher who has given up preaching. That knowledge changes everything and leads to a horrible tragedy.

Rapunzel

This year's play was actually written by MHS's very own Mr. Case. The story starts with a couple desperately wanting to have a child. When they finally get pregnant the wife has these insatiable cravings for a plant that grows in the witch's yard. The husband sneaks into the yard only to be discovered and has to beg for his life. The witch takes mercy on him and agrees to spare him his life in return for the baby when it is born. The farmer has no choice but to agree. After the baby is born the witch takes her and locks her into a tower. Rapunzel has to let down her hair periodically to allow the witch to come up and brush her hair. She stays there until her prince aided by Rapunzel's farm animals rescues her from the witch and her wolves.

Rapunzel, Rapunzel, let down your hair, so that I may climb the golden stair.

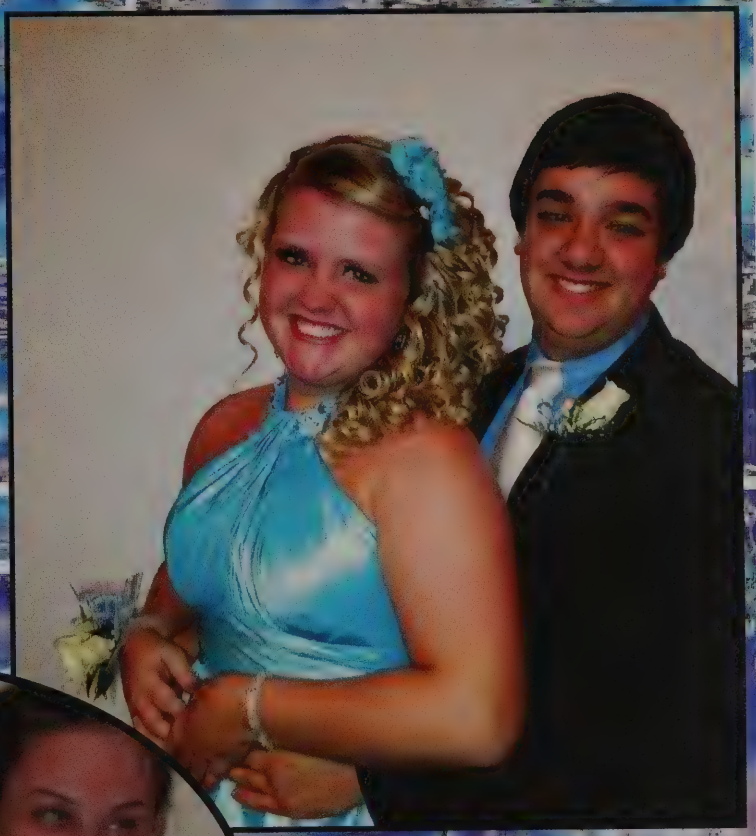
WINTER

formal

This years winter formal took place in our very own gym. The thought of this upset many students at first, but the night ended up to be truly amazing.



Annual Food Drive

Mr. Manuszak and Mrs. Sommers have been working for several years in order to provide hope for many during the holiday season. In fact this year marked the 31st anniversary of its existence. The food drive helps Mishawaka citizens by providing them with food and other necessities during the holiday season. There were many ways that people could help. They could donate money and food, help set up and tear down,or sponsor a table. Every year over 150 families are able to enjoy a wonderful dinner when they may have had to normally go without. Many thanks to Mr. Mann and Mrs. Sommers for all of their love and hard work.

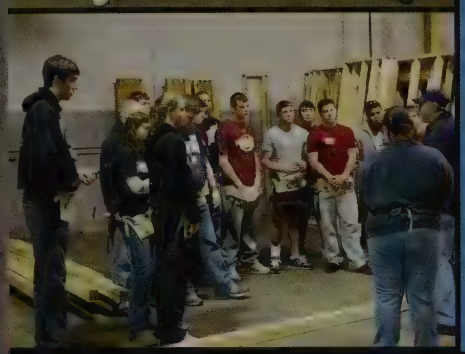
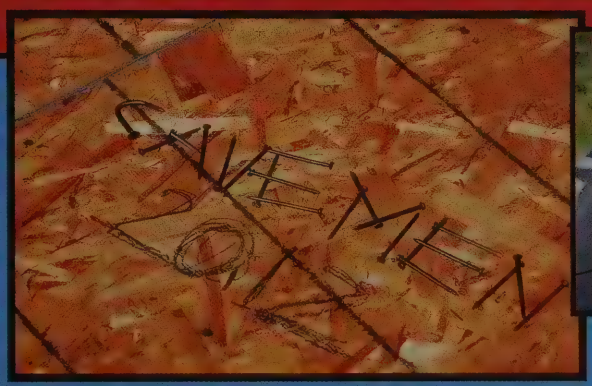
Habitat for Humanity





Hooray for the football, softball, and baseball teams! They did a great community service by participating in building a habitat for humanity house. The football team built the walls in the habitat warehouse. The softball team installed walls on the site. The baseball team installed sheathing or wood covering that goes around the walls. Great job teams!

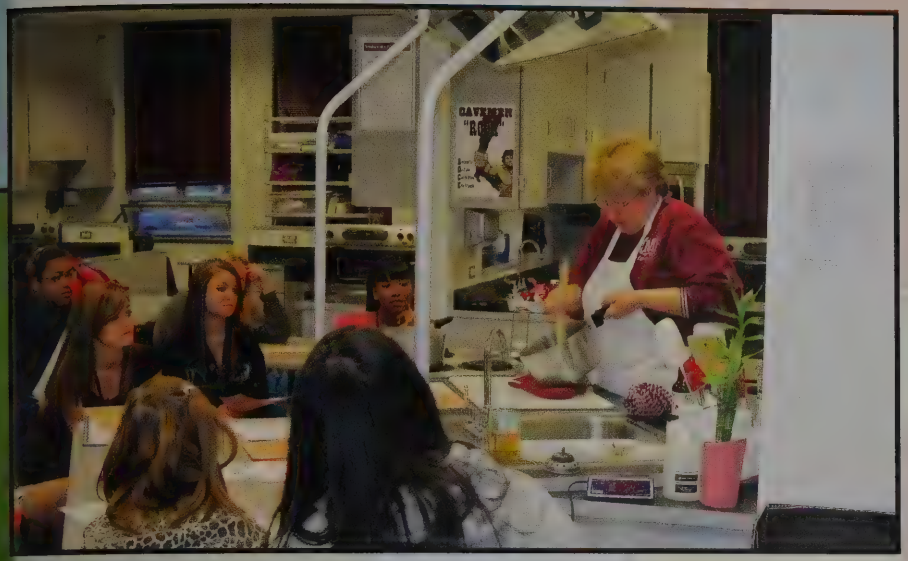
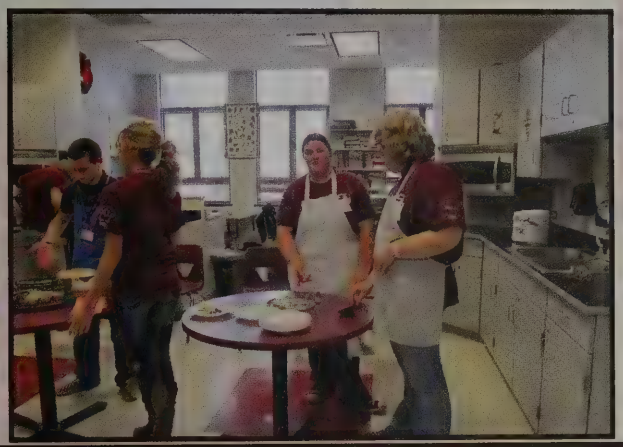
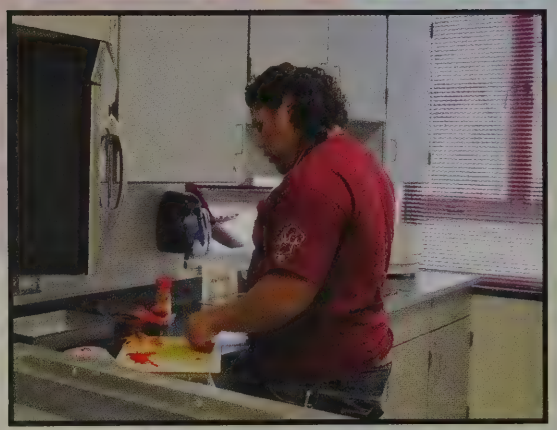
FACS DEPARTMENT

Winners of the cake decorating contest. Eman Alkotob, Mary Fulks, and William Sanchez.







In the FACS classes many skills are learned that can be utilized for a lifetime. Students must first learn about different procedures. Then they apply them in the kitchen and work diligently to create beautiful and delicious masterpieces.

Austin,

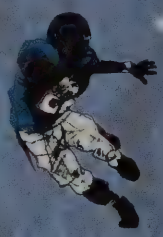
It has been amazing watching you grow into the young man that you are today. Your journey has just begun but it has been a pleasure watching all that you have already accomplished. You will always have our love, support, and friendship. We are so very proud of you Son. Congratulations, best of luck with your future, and always remember where you come from.

We love you,
Momo's & Paw

Mark Smith II

We are proud of all you have accomplished here at M.H.S. You have worked very hard on all of your classes.

Love, Mom



Kyle,

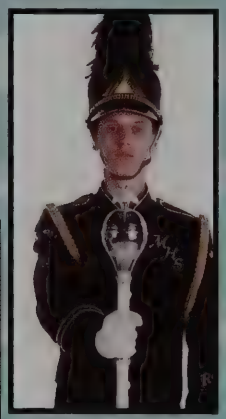
We are so very proud of you!
You've grown into such a fine, responsible young man.

You have graced us with so much love, joy, and laughter.

Be true to who you are, keep your faith, and know that we are always here for you.

We are very blessed to call you our son.

Love ya! Dad & Mom
Mandy, Chad, and the triplets



BaND

Zane,

You have given us so many memories. Stay gold. Your whole-hearted effort in everything, left nothing undone. You are loved, because you loved. Your fearlessness inspires us every day. May God continue to bless you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Abbey,

I am so proud of all that you have accomplished at MHS. Against all odds you got yourself through 4 hard years. You are a very strong and independent woman. I am glad to be your mother. You mean so much to me. Keep up the hard work and you my loveable, fun loving, go getter daughter will go far. I can't wait to hear all about your college years.

Good luck Babydoll! I love you to infinity and beyond.

Mom

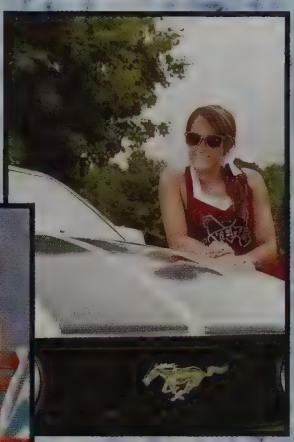
Casi-

We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. You are so strong and determined in everything that you do. We have watched you grow from a quiet little girl into a beautiful confident woman over the past four years. Thank you for the laughter and tears. You are truly our greatest accomplishment in life!

Love,
Mom & Dad

A daughter is a miracle that never ceases to be miraculous...full of beauty and forever beautiful...loving and caring and truly amazing.

---Deanna Beisser



Lucas,

You and your brothers have been the greatest blessings in our lives.

No parents, grandparents, and godparents could be prouder than we are of you.

We love you!

Mom, Dad, Michael, & Nick
Grammy & Arnie
Uncle Doug & Aunt Connie

Tyler Paul,
(Buddy-Boy)

Congratulations on all your accomplishments while at MHS. Including perfect attendance all 4 yrs!!! You have certainly made the most of your high-school days. We are beyond proud of you and the wonderful person you have become. Thank-you for always striving to do your best, also for all the great times with the band at all the football and basketball games! Keep up all your hard-work and determination when you get to West Lafayette. The best is yet to come!
